

Key Competitive Advantages of the V-Trust TD-2300A Vital Signs Monitor

- First Vital Signs/Spot Check Monitor with Integrated Glucose monitoring and Wireless Data Transmission to the unit
- Integrated IR Ear temperature monitoring with Wireless Data Transmission to the unit
- Wireless Bluetooth thermal printer with extended internal battery back-up
- Patient log and patient data management system
- Integrated Nellcor™ USA Pulse Oximetry with Patented Sat Seconds technology
- Full touch color screen, menu and operations
- Multiple memory card slots for data storage and Medicare cards
- Integrated NIBP (Blood Pressure) monitoring with patented Clever Inflation Technology
- Multiple slots and options for network connections/integration
- Light Li-Ion battery with 5 - 7 Hr. Back up and 3.5 Hr. Quick Charge
- 24 Month Warranty
- Automatic print of data at set time intervals or on alarm conditions
- Saves 1000 sets of patient data with all parameters, time/date stamps and patient name, weight, height information. Including auto save options at set time intervals
- Bluetooth connectivity to a PC for easy and fast data transmission
- 24 Hour trending facility with min. 30 second intervals
- Target Markets: Emergency, CCU, ICU, Ambulatory, Hospital General Care Ward, Alternate care application, Community/Rural Area/Nursing Homes, Diabetes Ward

Future Road Map

- Inbuilt GPRS and Wi-Fi module for enhanced wireless communication options connecting long distances and remote regions
- Bluetooth compatibility with common off the shelf printers for printing on A4 paper directly
- Car charger plug options for ambulatory care
- Integration of ECG